

100-443886-100

Sub B'7

MODULAR CONTAINERS THAT CAN BE INTERCONNECTED, FOR PLE USES; of the type that, conforming a bottle or similar thing, -of re and materials usually developed for their disposal -, essentially s a bottom and lateral walls finished in a top wall; and this top wall, is ged in a neck delimiting an access mouth to its interior, that can be shut ans of a cover that can be removed, characterized because so much the walls as those of the bottom and top, possess means of lateral and top nnexion with other containers of the same characteristics, consisting in tible recesses and salients and of reciprocal fit through pressure